ANNA'S LINENS OFFERS 10 PERCENT OFF ENTIRE PURCHASE TO AARP MEMBERS

Discount Offered Every Day at More Than 315 Locations

WASHINGTON, D.C. (July 1, 2014) – Shoppers 50+ looking for home décor options, from bed sets to dinnerware, can save money at Anna's Linens with an AARP membership. The retailer, with more than 300 locations in 19 U.S. states and Puerto Rico, now offers AARP members a 10 percent discount off their entire purchase, every day of the week.

"We are excited to welcome Anna's Linens as a new provider and discount option for our members," said Angela Jones, senior vice president of business development and lifestyle, at AARP Services, Inc. "Anna's Linens offers a broad selection of merchandise and they do a fabulous job reaching and appealing to consumers."

Anna's Linens is a family-run retailer with more than 3,200 employees, and offers comforter sets, sheets, pillows, bath towels, rugs, dinnerware, cookware, decorative hardware, decorative pillows, framed art, and more for prices up to 75 percent less than major department stores. Headquartered in Costa Mesa, California, Anna's Linens is the 14th largest retailer of home textiles and home decor items.

"A person's home can be a reflection of their personality and character, and we hope every AARP member can find something in our stores that speaks to their unique tastes," said Scott Gladstone, president and chief executive officer from Anna's Linens. "We recognize the incredible power of the AARP member base and are proud to become a provider to this group of influential consumers."

AARP Services, Inc. manages provider relationships that help fulfill real possibilities for AARP members. Each provider is chosen after completion of a vetting process to ensure that it offers exceptional customer service and valuable discounts and services.
